The soiders express themselves as being delighted with Honolulu and quite a number expressed their intention to return here and settle as soon as their terms of enlistment are completed. One of the most striking things about the men on the Meade is the youth of the enlisted men. Scores of them are mere boys and it is probable that in several instances they stretched their age limit a trifle in their anxlety to get into the service. Both detachments seems to be a quiet, orderly set of soidiers. The Pennsylvania will get away about noon tomorrow and the Meade will sail about Friday or Saturday.

OVER PROSPECT.

Thinks People Will Have to be Slowly Educated to American Standard of Political Freedom.

Among the passengers aboard the transport Meade which arrived yester-day from San Francisco are Generals William Ludlow and James F. Wade. William Ludiow and James F. Wade. They are accompanied by their aides and are going to Manila to report to General MacArthur for active duty. They will relieve two of the generals who are now on service in the Philippines. Probably Generals Lloyd Wheaton and Bate will be relieved. The latter have been in command of the departments of Northern and Southern Luzon, and the new comers will no doubt, be assigned to the comands of those two departments.
